RESOLUTION.

It appears from the correspondence forwarded by the Military Department that the procedure to be followed in respect of a deserter from Her Majesty's Navy who has fallen into the hands of the Civil authorities is not generally known. And in order to prevent the unnecessary detention in jail of such deserters pending enquiry as to the proper measures to be adopted towards them, the Government of India desire that the attention of all Civil Officers may be drawn to the provisions of 10 and 11 Victoria Chapter 62, Section 9, and that the procedure therein prescribed may in future be followed.

2. The provisions of that section are to the following effect:—

I.—Any person reasonably suspected to belong to Her Majesty's Navy and to be a deserter, or improperly absent from his duty, may be apprehended by a Constable.

II.—The Constable shall bring the person so apprehended before a Justice of the Peace.

III.—The Justice of the Peace shall examine the person so brought before him, and if it appears—

(a) that he belongs to Her Majesty's Navy, and—

(b) that he is improperly absent from his duty,
the Justice shall take one of the following courses:

(1) When the deserter has been apprehended in the vicinity of one of Her Majesty's ships in commission, send him on board such ship.

(2) When the deserter has not been apprehended in the vicinity of one of such ships, send him to the nearest or most convenient public prison and notify the commitment to the Secretary to the Admiralty, or to any Naval Commander-in-Chief or Officer commanding one of Her Majesty's ships, at the same time describing the deserter and naming the ship to which he is supposed to belong.

IV.—When the deserter has been sent to a prison, the Superintendent thereof shall deliver him up to any person authorized to take charge of him by—

(a) the Lord High Admiral, or—

(b) the Commissioners for executing the office of the Lord High Admiral, or—

(c) any Naval Commander-in-Chief, or—

(d) the Officer commanding any one of Her Majesty's ships.

On receiving the deserter, the person so authorized shall convey him in safe custody on board any of Her Majesty's ships in commission.
